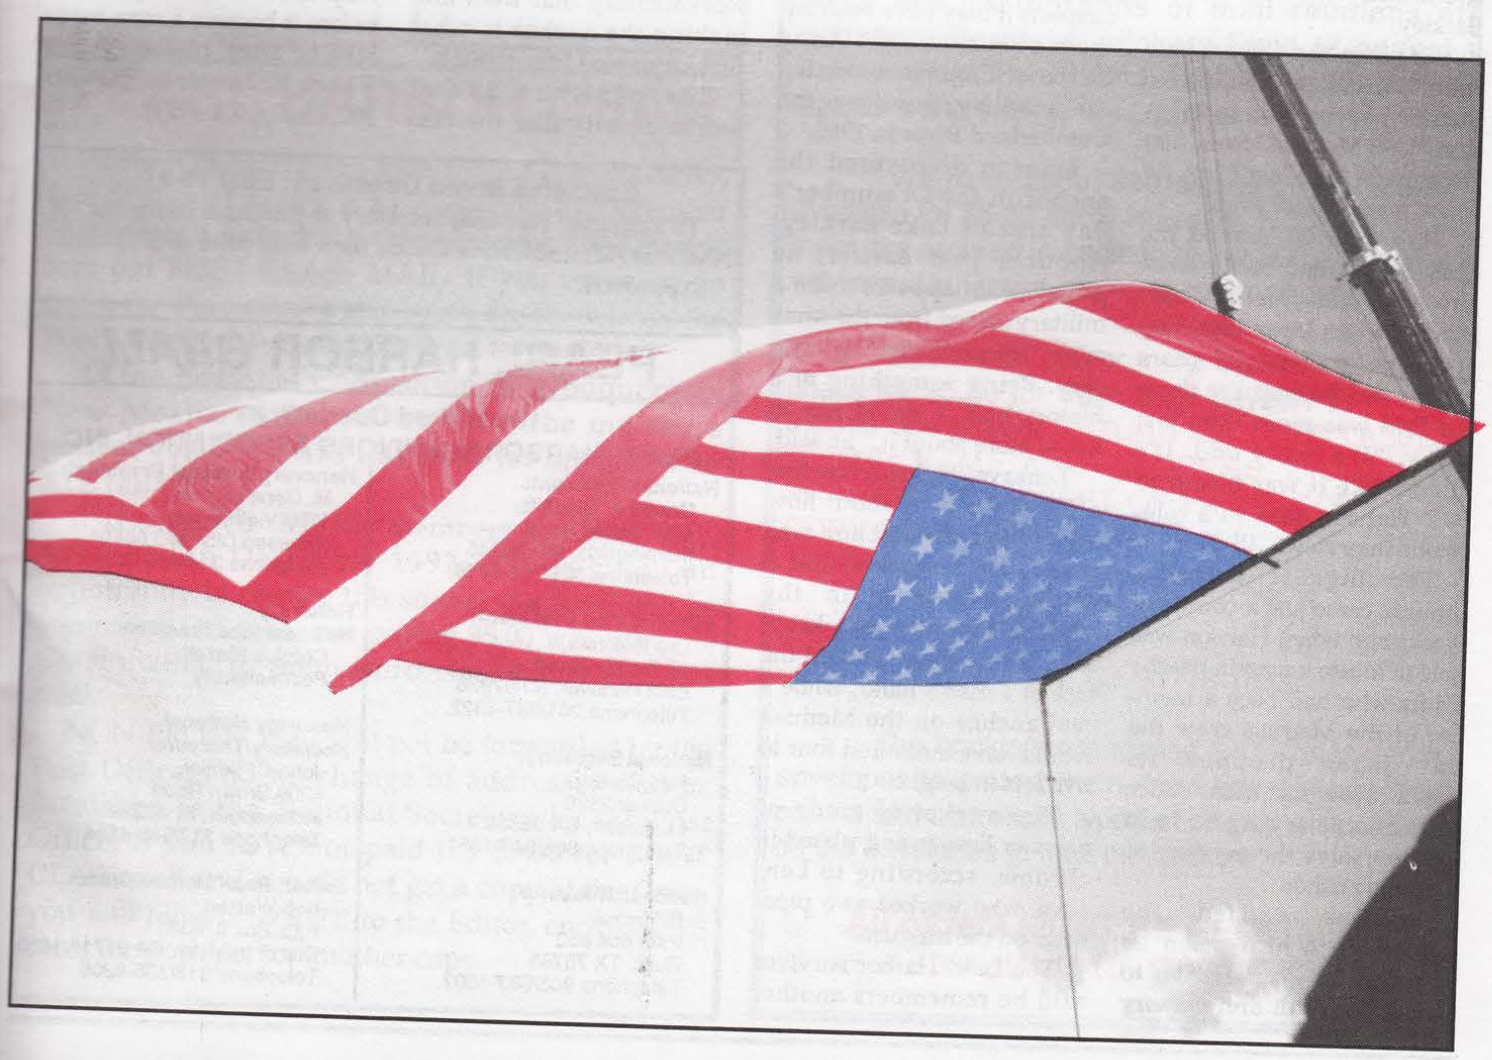
45 by 90 Feet, 300 Pounds, 48 Stars
Raised at Fort Derussy on December 5, 1991



Message from the President

First off, I want to apologize to Chuck Mallon and his wife Lucille. I gave someone else the credit for the tremendous job they did on the banquet reservations. I am terribly sorry about that.

I also want to thank Marie White, her son Joseph W. "Bud" White, and John Crandall for the great job they did putting together the Pearl Harbor License display that her late husband, Joe, started.

I would like to welcome the many new members that have joined us in the past year. I would like to urge them to attend not only their chapter meetings, but any State Conventions and District Conventions they can.

And don't forget Little Rock in December for the National Convention where we will elect new officers. We need everybody's participation.

Also, my apology to anyone else I may have forgotten.

Gerald A. Glaubitz

From the National Secretary

We are in the process of changing the application form to make sure that information is complete when form is sent into the Administrative Office. We are receiving many forms without sponsors — Service Serial numbers — enlistment dates or a brief account of ones experience on December 7, 1941.

Last but not least is that many forms are being sent to the National Treasurer along with check, which just adds up to a delay in the processing of the application. Please follow the instructions on the form so as not to delay one from receiving their membership card.

The new forms will require a copy of discharge papers along with separation or form 214. The application form which was printed last year in the GRAM is not correct, please do not use it. Dues are still $10 for annual dues and $75 for Life-Membership.

If signing up as an annual member there is a $5 fee for initiation. The $5 for receiving the GRAM has nothing to do with membership dues.

Mystery Surrounds PH Anchor Found In Kentucky

By Jennifer P. Brown

Cadiz, KY — Mussel fisherman Jim Hanson has hauled his share of junk from the muddy waters of Lake Barkley.

But when the Gilbertsville man pulled a miniature anchor bearing the inscription "USS Medusa" from that man-made lake last May, he knew it was a lucky find.

Then Hanson learned the USS Medusa had been part of the American fleet at Pearl Harbor when Japan launched its surprise attack 50 years ago — and he began to think his find was more than just lucky. "It's really odd. It's almost like it was meant to be," Hanson said in a telephone interview.

The biggest surprise, though, came just a couple of weeks ago when Hanson was able to locate a man in nearby Cadiz who had been a member of the Medusa crew the day Japan dropped its bombs. Now that man, Vance Leneave, is trying to help Hanson solve the mystery of the little anchor.

Leneave carried the anchor with him when he departed for Pearl Harbor to attend the 50th anniversary ceremony.

Hanson, 51, wants to know where the anchor was made and how it got to the bottom of Lake Barkley. He suspects it may have been left there even before the Army Corps of Engineers created the lake by flooding the Cumberland River in 1965.

Hanson discovered the anchor in the Demumber's Bay area of Lake Barkley. About a year earlier, he pulled what appears to be a military sword from the same spot. "It's an intriguing mystery. Being something of a history buff, I would like to know more about it," he said.

Leneave, 71, has a few theories of his own about how and when the anchor was made. He suggests that a sailor crafted it in the Medusa's foundry as a keepsake. The anchor is about the size of a man's hand, while a real anchor on the Medusa would have measured four to five feet in height.

The anchor is made of brass or bronze and plated in chrome, according to Leneave, who worked as a pipefitter on the Medusa.

The Pearl Harbor survivor said he remembers another sailor in his shop who did all of the chrome-plating work on the ship.

Hanson, himself a Navy veteran, said the quality of workmanship that went into making the anchor is what first impressed him about it.

The miniature anchor works exactly like the real thing and has moveable joints.

If anyone has any idea as to how this miniature USS Medusa anchor found its way to Lake Barkley, either before it became a man-made lake or after, please contact Vance B. Leneave, PO Box 302, Cadiz, KY 42211.

SAC Museum Pearl Harbor Exhibit

The Strategic Air Command Museum located in Bellevue, NE and adjacent to Offutt Air Force Base, marked the 50th anniversary of the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor with a new exhibit. The four panel exhibit blends audio, video, still photography and print into the display. Included in the tribute is a video of the attack on Pearl Harbor news headlines of that day, dramatic pictures of the attack aftermath and the famous "Day of Infamy" speech to U.S. Congress and the nation by president Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The exhibit was unveiled with a sneak preview on December 5th of anniversary week with Nebraska State Chairman Burt Amgwert as the preview speaker. The special preview was for members of the museum society, area Pearl Harbor survivors, SAC and Offutt personnel and guests, with over one hundred fifty attending.

The SAC Museum is a non-profit organization consisting of a large exhibit building displaying the history of SAC from the first commander, General George Kinney in 1946 to the current commander, General Lee Butler. Also included in a large adjacent parking area for viewing and entering, are some of the twenty five or thirty planes that have played a part in the history of SAC's defense of our nation. The SAC Museum Memorial Society is solidly supported by the local area and directed by a board of directors of local dignitaries including some SAC General Staff officers. If you are ever in the Omaha area and you want to get a view of history that you will never find in history books, make the visit to SAC Museum as a "must stop" on your trip. It is open seven days a week at a nominal fee, is well publicized and easy to find. All you have to do, is ask a local resident.

Pearl Harbor Flag

By now you should have received your "Certificate of Appreciation" if you made a donation for our own "Pearl Harbor Flag." Your donation was greatly appreciated by Marc Valentine, the man that designed and donated to the Pearl Harbor Survivors this special 90' x 45', 300-pound flag. It was dedicated by President George Bush at the Punch Bowl ceremony. It was first raised at Fort Derussy with over 4,000 members and guests present. For those of you that did see the dedication or the flag raising and would like to feel you want to be part of the program, donations are still being accepted to help defray the $5,000.00 cost of this flag. You will also receive a "Certification of Appreciation." Donations may be sent to: Pearl Harbor Flag,

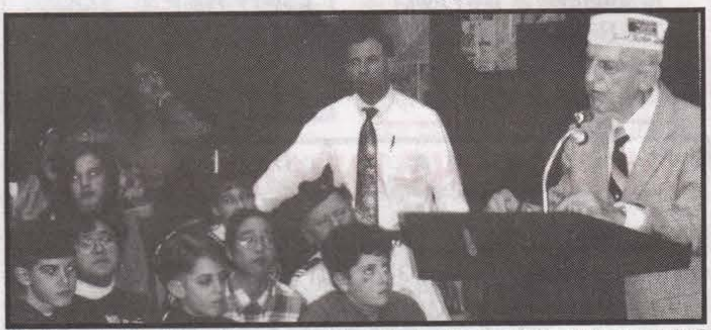
Manhasset Junior High School



On March 16, 1992, George J. VanGieri of Long Island Chapter 135 gave a one-hour presentation to about 200 students of Manhasset Junior High School in New York. The students were beginning their study of American History and the United States entry into World War II. The timely PHSA presentation was aimed to facilitate the students' study of an important event. It proved to be successful, with applause, the school principal's warm appreciation and an invitation to return next year. The memory of Pearl Harbor was perpetuated on March 16, 1992 at Manhasset, New York.

Andy Toth, Joe Dorman and John Stratton

Andy Toth and Joe Dorman drove cross-country from New Jersey to California ina 1966 Ford Mustang. During the trip the car used no oil or water. While the guests of John Stratton, they accompanied him to a monthly meeting of National Chapter One on September 15.

From the Editor

In the list of State Chairmen in the February Gram, the Colorado State Chairman was listed as Frederick Bowen. It should have been George Fortune. The Pennsylvania State Chairman's first name should have been Paul R. Moyer, and his telephone number should be (215) 536-7795. A corrected list is on page 24 so you may tear it out and keep it handy for ready reference.

There are several corrections to new members listed in the February Gram;

The R was left off of the name of Howard W. Schumacher.

The first name of James D. True was spelled incorrectly, and he was on the USS Helena — not USS Henley.

The first name of Alan Darling was spelled incorrectly, and he was on the USS Dewey — not USS Dobbin.

Ronald F. Stones was in the 27th Infantry at Schofield Barracks not the 8th F/A.

William Sheehan should have been shown as on the USS Ralph Talbot not the USS Swan.

Franklin V. Hockenbrock should have been shown as being in the 581st Air Warning Battalion, Schofield Barracks — not at Hickam Field.

S. William Elmer should have been shown in the 55th C/A at Fort Kamehameha — not the 35th C/A, and his home town should have been Abington, PA — not Agington.

In the November 1991 Gram, the last name of new member Geryl F. Wells was incorrect.

Letter to the Editor

I was very happy to see the article on Westfield, Pennsylvania program. They have an outstanding program. I have been writing to them for over a year and sending pictures and items for their P.H. history that they maintain. I have a student from there assigned to me. We write regularly. It is very rewarding.

Although CNN and others carried their program, there is a 2 hour tape available of the entire program. Their program was OUTSTANDING. If anyone would like a copy of the tape, contact me and I will tell you how to get one. Robert Foust, 3145 Egremont Dr., West Palm Beach, FL 33496.

Australian Memorial Services

American Legion "Yanks Down Under" Post 1 in Sydney, Australia held their seventh annual Pearl Harbor Memorial Services on December 7, 1991.

PHSA members living in Australia and attending were Lloyd Bunting (Hickam Field) and Ed Fiddock (USS Dobbin).

Other non-member survivors who attended were Mel Sayer (USS Dobbin), Harold Barlow (USS Dobbin), Frank Brittain (USS Dobbin), Eugene McClarty (USS Downes), Bill Dority (USS Helm) and Bill Crim (Schofield Barracks).

NOTICE! NOTICE! NOTICE!

The National Storekeeper's Office will be closed from July 1, to October 1, 1992. No telephone calls or orders will be filled during this time.

Desk Flags & Miniature Medal

A question has been raised as to the meaning of the colors in the miniature medal ribbon. BLACK signifies we mourn our dead; WHITE is for their innocence; and BLUE is for the waters of Pearl. I must compliment Houston James for suggesting the BLUE.

The Battle of MIDWAY - June 4, 1942
Official Issue for the Pearl Harbor Survivors Association

Fifty years ago, we were still recovering from the devastation at Pearl Harbor. Suddenly, there came news of a stunning naval victory at the outermost fringe of the Hawaiian Islands...a victory called Midway. There we had not merely stopped the Japanese, we had hurt them - badly.

AMERICA EVENS THE SCORE

The significance of the Battle of Midway cannot be overstated. It was a "must win" for both sides. If Japan had prevailed, the Hawaiian Islands would have fallen. The Frontline in the Pacific would have been pushed back to California. Instead, America evened the score. We sank four of the six Japanese carriers that had launched the sneak attack on Pearl Harbor seven months earlier. Before it was over, we lost the USS Yorktown, but Midway was the turning point - in our mood - in our morale - and in the war.

To celebrate this important and the most decisive battle in American naval history, a Special Limited Edition commemorative MIDWAY DALA is issued by the Royal Hawaiian Mint that is located just a few miles from the U.S. Pacific Fleet Headquarters at Pearl Harbor.

The Official MIDWAY DALA is available three ways, all at special discount prices for GRAM readers only. The single Silver Dala containing one ounce of .999 fine silver in stunning Proof condition with the same beautiful packaging as the Pearl Harbor Dala is $24.95. The three coin Gold Proof Set containing a 1/10 Gold, 1 oz. silver and a Proof Bronze Midway Dala is $179.00 each. And the Unsurpassed Gold Midway Dala containing one full ounce of .999 Fine Gold is $695.00. 50th Anniversary Reunions

Pearl Harbor Survivors March

A March to Commemorate the 50th Anniversary

Music by Richard H. Hansbery; Dedicatory words by Dale Phillips

Both Survivors were members of US Navy Band 13 on December 7, 1941. The music was played for the first time by the Fort Derussy Army Band at the Flag Raising on December 7, 1991. PHSA National President Gerald Glaubitz recited the march, as he did at the November 17, 1991 ceremonies at the US Naval Academy. The March:

We assembled...aging, white-haired survivors of the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor were not always so old.

On December 7, 1941 we were mostly in our teens and twenties. Our futures? At that age, they are forever. We brimmed with the zest for life.

So, too, did the nearly two thousand four hundred friends and shipmates who perished that day. They had the same limitless future... they, too, had dreams. It is for their lives deprived that we grieve.

Concerning military casualties it is often said, "They 'gave' their lives..." We knew these people well. We were with them when they died. Oh, how they did struggle to hang on...to live. Their lives were not "given."

Their lives were stolen... snatched away, blown...some headless, some limbless, mutilated...into a sea of burning oil. They floated...some face down, others with fire-blackened sightless eyes staring into a suffocating pall of smoke. Smoke from the burning life-blood of "Arizona," "California," "Raleigh," "Utah," Hickam Field, Ford Island...the list goes on and on.

That is the Pearl Harbor we remember. An act of treachery ...deceit...unmatched. "A day that will live in infamy," said President Roosevelt. That is the Pearl Harbor we do not forget.

Fifty years later, as our steps now falter, and our ranks diminish, we turn to generations ahead to see that our old friends and shipmates do not lie at the bottom of these waters for naught. Hear the message of the Pearl Harbor Survivors' Association: "Keep America Alert."

For copies of the words and music, contact Dale Phillips, 3993 Chesapeake Drive, Edgewater, MD 21037. Phone (410) 798-0681.

Georgia Memorial Services

By James Mayfield
State Secty/Treas.

The state of Georgia Pearl Harbor Survivors Association had a very special remembrance service December 7, 1991. The Augusta Chapter #3 was responsible for the meeting.

Dr. Willie D. Gunn, President of East Georgia College in Swainsboro, Georgia, asked if his college could be in charge of the special 50th anniversary banquet. Dr. Gunn is a personal friend of J. Paul Strickland, President of PHSA's Augusta chapter. East Georgia College did a fantastic job. The students and teachers painted a huge mural depicting the attack on the USS West Virginia o December 7, 1941. The designed special programs name tags that identified b ribbons the five branches service represented, displays and were the most gracio hosts we have ever had.

General Raymond Gilbe Davis, US Marine Corp retired, was the guest speak er. Thirty four Pearl Harbo Survivors, their wives, fam lies and friends totalled 2 attended.

Sunday morning, Decem ber 8, 1991 the associatio attended an Aloha Breakfa planned by J. Paul Stricklan The entire weekend wa especially meaningful everyone.

Northern Virginia Chapter 1

By William J. Miller

Northern Virginia was the region of varied memorial activities on December 7th and a few days prior to that. The principal activity, surpassed only by those at Pearl Harbor, was Chapter One's participation in what is termed "An Armed Forces Full Wreath Ceremony." This took place at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in the presence of full honor guards from all five uniformed services.

Two survivors, James Stanfield and William J. Miller, accompanied Deputy SecDef Donald Atwood and Commanding General (Military District of Washingto William Streeter in symbo cally laying a large wreath roses at the marble tomb.

Representatives from different veterans organiz tions nationwide then ca forward, each laying a sing rose of remembrance at t base of the wreath. Repr senting PHSA was Fra Yanick.

Following this was rep sentation by PHSA in a ce mony carried out for ma years by the much esteem AmVets organization. He too, a wreath was laid at Tomb, with James Stanfi representing PHSA.

Then, as been done every year since 1984, area PHSA survivors held their memorial service at the Pearl Harbor plaque and tree, about 100 feet northwest of the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

Soon after the AmVets ceremony ended, PHSA's own local remembrance observance began. All members present formed a partial semi-circle around the plaque and tree, while their friends and families remained in the seated area. During this event, Norman Lancaster held the staff of the PHSA flag to prevent its being blown over by the wind. Then to the sounds of Taps by an Army bugler, William J. Miller placed a white orchid on the plaque and said a few words of honor and respect concerning all those whose lives were lost that fateful day.

Pearl Harbor License Plate Display At 50th Reunion

By Alba Marie White

There are Pearl Harbor Survivor license plates for 38 states and 12 states designed with letters PHSA. We received the 39th state, Massachusetts while in Hawaii. Also Wisconsin's Governor signed the legislation during that week and Connecticut will add theirs by February. The nine remaining are: Delaware, Georgia, Hawaii, Mississippi, North Dakota, New Hampshire, Oregon, Rhode Island, and Vermont.

My thanks to all those that spent so many hours working with the Legislature to obtain the license plates for their states and to each of you for your help in obtaining the plates for this display.

There are many who helped with this display, Ed Chappell, who had the responsibility of getting the 200# box from stateside to the reunion and the many of you that helped put it up each morning and take it down each night, my thanks to you all.

I would also like to thank John Crandall, 2nd District Director, for his many hours of help with this display. But most of all, my love and thanks to our son, Joseph W. (Bud) White for his dedication in designing and building the display.

Without Bud's help, we would not have been able to complete Joe's dream, the display of Pearl Harbor License Plates.

This is a project that all Pearl Harbor Survivors can be proud of and we will have the display in Little Rock this December.

Aloha,
The Joe White Family

Pensacola Florida Chapter Nine

By Bob Moore
Chapter Secretary

Heeding the call of our Commander-in-Chief who proclaimed December 7th, 1991 as National Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day, museum volunteers organized a Pearl Harbor memorial program held December 7th at the National Museum of Naval Aviation, Pensacola, Florida.

A brief ceremony took place at precisely 11:55 a.m. (7:55 Pearl Harbor time) to mark the time of attack. General Quarters was piped, announcement was made over the intercom asking for a moment of silence. The Navy Hymn and Taps concluded this eight minute ceremony. At 2:30 p.m. Pearl Harbor survivors and guests assembled in the Museum Atrium for a Memorial Program. Colors were displayed by armed force personnel of all five branches of the services. Music was presented by a military chorus. Vice Admiral John H. Fedderman, Chief of Naval Education and Training, presented 105 Congressional Commemorative Metals to Survivors and family members.

A memorial wreath was presented by four past presidents of Florida Chapter Nine and dedicated to those shipmates and buddies who lost their lives at Pearl Harbor and to those who "joined the forces of the Supreme Commander since that date."

The wreath was "cast into the sea" by personnel of Helicopter Squadron HC 16.

Alabama

Members of Alabama Chapter #1 celebrated Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day on 7 December 1991, on the Battleship Alabama, in Battleship Park, Mobile, Alabama. Alabama Survivors were honored guests of the USS Alabama Battleship Commission, Mobile Chamber of Commerce, Marine Corps League, American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Military Order of the Purple Heart, Disabled American Veterans, Waves National, American ex-Prisoners of War, AmVets, Vietnam Veterans of America, The Retired Officers' Association and The Retired Enlisted Association.

The program started with the reading of a Proclamation from Alabama Governor, Guy Hunt. Shaw High School Band of Mobile performed a pre-ceremony band concert. The National Anthem was sung by Miss Alabama, Wendy Nevendorf, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag. The Navy choir from Pensacola Naval Air Station serenaded the group with songs of all the military services.

Norman Parker, State Chairman of the Alabama Chapter, gave informative facts about the Association and then introduced Nolan Kitchens, President of Alabama Chapter #1. After welcoming the attendees, he introduced Past President, George Murray, who dedicated a Pearl Harbor Survivors Memorial (photo above) and presented the memorial to the Alabama Park Commission. The memorial was constructed with funds donated by members and several widows of former members of Alabama Chapter #1.

As part of the ceremony, water from near the USS ARIZONA in Pearl Harbor was poured into Mobile Bay, and, in memory of those who died at Pearl Harbor, a wreath was dropped into the bay.

At 11:55, Alabama time, there was a moment of silence, followed by a 21-gun volley, fired by members of VFW Post 49. Four members of the Alabama National Guard made a fly-over, flying the "missing man" formation, and Taps was played by members of Shaw High School Band.

Following the program on the USS Alabama, Survivors went to the nearby Econo-Lodge for lunch. At a ceremony thereafter, State Chairman, Norman Parker, presented those Survivors who were present with their Congressional Pearl Harbor Medals.

Shot on Location in Hawaii during the 50th Anniversary

"It looks like a network production....Congratulations on a job well done!"
"I felt like I was there once again. It brought back a lot of memories."
"Your tape has become a major addition to our video library. The quality is outstanding, and the photography is excellent."

These are some of the comments we're hearing about SLEEPING GIANT. We have produced a broadcast quality, one-hour video documentary, featuring interviews with many survivors and key individuals, whose names and actions occupy a permanent place in American History. From the President of the United States to the only two surviving Medal of Honor recipients, through the only meeting of the three individuals who were involved in the first radar sighting of the attacking planes, to an aerial view of Pearl Harbor today, and much more. Survivors relive their stories, and you can too. Rare historical footage adds to memories of the 'Day of Infamy'.

This is not just coverage of parties and parades. It is rather, at times, an emotional look back at perhaps the most remembered event of this century. Satisfaction guaranteed. This will become a treasured addition to your World War II collection. Sorry, VHS only.

My Day Of Infamy

By Lema Best

Carl and I were married in the Spring of 1941 while he was attached to the USS Curtiss, a new seaplane tender based at Philadelphia. Shortly after our honeymoon, the Curtiss set sail for Honolulu and became a part of the Pacific Fleet at Pearl Harbor. Being from a small town in Tennessee, it was like a dream come true to be going to Hawaii for a couple of years. I arrived in Honolulu in October having traveled cross country by train to Long Beach, and from there on the Hawaiian cruise ship SS Matsonia.

There being no military installations near my home in Tennessee, everything about the military in Hawaii was a new experience for me. Terms like Commissary, Dispensary, Navy Exchange, ID cards - and seeing so many men in uniform, and the many nationalities (Chinese, Japanese, Hawaiian, Portuguese, Philippines and American), all living harmoniously together in one place, took a while to get used to.

We found a little house high in the hills above Honolulu with a beautiful view of the city and the harbor below where we could see the frequent coming and going of warships in and out of Pearl Harbor.

Another thing I couldn't get acclimated to was the thunder of anti-aircraft guns during the frequent Army and Navy drills around Pearl Harbor. It was this "thunder" that awakened us early on December 7th. Luckily, Carl was with me because the Curtiss had returned to Pearl Harbor on December 5th from a trip to Hilo, Hawaii. Because it was Sunday and the booming of gun fire lasted so long, we went outside to investigate. If this was a drill, it was the most realistic either of us had ever seen, and it soon became apparent that something very unusual was happening to our city and our fleet. We turned on the radio and the announcer confirmed that indeed the Japanese were attacking the fleet in Pearl Harbor and everything else in sight in and around Honolulu.

All military personnel were ordered to return to their installations and ships. As we drove to Pearl Harbor in the terrible traffic jam, our car was stopped and Carl was ordered to make the remaining journey to the Curtiss in another car with other service men. I was told to return home because automobiles were being machine gunned on the highway to the Pearl Harbor Navy Yard.

I spent the remainder of the day listening to the radio as it continued to tell of the dreadful damage in the harbor. Honolulu was put on total black-out that night with the Marines and police patrolling to insure that no lights were showing in the city.

Still alone, I covered the one window I had with a blanket and felt kind of snug listening to the radio in my brightly lighted kitchen where I could move about freely, but soon there came a knock on the door and a couple of Marines politely told me my light was shining through, and not so politely ordered me to immediately turn it off. All I could do now was go to bed and reflect on a day I'll never forget.

Oddly, the night was quiet, occasionally a car would go by, or I could hear a plane returning from patrol. It was the longest night of my life.

After three days of rumor with no word from Carl, I made a desperate visit to see the ship's Chaplain to find out about Carl and his ship. The Chaplain said the Curtiss wasn't damaged and no one aboard had been hurt. I returned home somewhat elated by the news. However, when Carl returned home for a few hours on the fourth day after the attack, I realized the Chaplain's optimistic report was concocted to calm and reassure me that Carl and his shipmates were OK. Actually, my husband's ship had taken a very damaging blow from a suicide plane carrying an armor-piercing bomb that caused fires on all four decks. Twenty men were killed and fifty-five wounded. The Chaplain was wise to withhold the truth from me.

For awhile, Carl was able to come home for a few hours every three or four days, but shortly the Curtiss had to leave for San Diego to have the bomb damage repaired.

While Carl was gone, the black-out continued. Military dependents were issued gas masks, and given instructions on how to use them. We were told to never leave home without them.

When the Curtiss returned from San Diego, it operated out of Pearl and was frequently gone for weeks at a time. I was alone so much I decided to return to the States. I inquired about passage and was told that pregnant women and women with children were given priority to leave the island first, so I, not meeting either of these requirements, patiently awaited my turn.

On April 4, 1942, I left Honolulu on the British ship, HMS Aquatania. This was the first ship to make the trip from Honolulu to the States without a protective convoy. We ran a zig-zag course all the way to avoid presenting a good target for enemy submarines that some passengers imagined to be behind every wave.

I stayed in Long Beach for a couple of days to arrange transport back to Tennessee. Meanwhile, Carl's ship left Pearl Harbor for Espiritu Santos, in the New Hebrides Islands, where it stayed for 19 months before returning to San Francisco.

After the war and after serving on numerous other ships and duty stations, Carl retired from the Navy with twenty years of service and we returned to our little town in Tennessee where we happily reside today.

December 7th was like a bad dream.

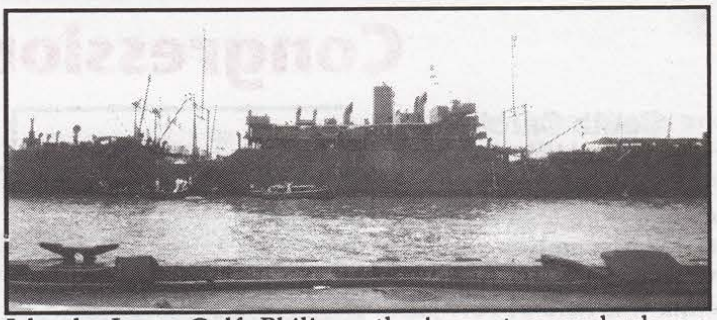
History of U.S.S. Argonne



The Argonne Forest was the scene of one of the major battles fought by American forces in World War I.

USS Argonne, (AP-4), the second ship of this name, was built in 1920 by American International Shipbuilding Corporation, Hog Island, PA, for the Shipping Board. She was loaned to the Navy by the Army November 3, 1921, and permanently transferred on August 6, 1924. She was commissioned on November 8, 1921, with Commander W. Smith in command.

Assigned to the Naval Transport Service, Argonne operated on both coasts and in trans-Pacific duty until March 1924, when she was converted to a submarine tender (reclassified AS-10, July 1, 1924). She operated along the Pacific coast (1924-31) as flagship and tender of Submarine Division 20. From 1931 to 1941 she flew the flags of the Commander, Base Force, U.S. Fleet, and the Commander, Train, Fleet Base Force, while operating with the fleet in the Pacific.

Not until July 25, 1940, however, was she reclassified AG-31.

Argonne was at Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941, but escaped the holocaust without damage. After assisting in the repair of vessels at Pearl Harbor, Argonne attempted salvage of the steamer President Taylor at Canton Island (April 18 to May 5, 1942). Between May 1942 and the end of World War II, Argonne served the fleet with repair and salvage operations at the following locations: Pearl Harbor; Noumea, New Caledonia; Auckland, New Zealand; Espiritu Santo, New Hebrides; Russell Islands; Majuro Atoll, Marshall Islands; Seeadler Harbor, Manus Island; Kossol Passage, Palau Islands; Leyte Gulf, Philippine Islands; and Eniwetok, Marshall Islands.

On November 10, 1944, while at Seeadler Harbor, Mount Hood (AE-11), which was berthed adjacent to Argonne, exploded. Argonne suffered several casualties and damages. She effected self-repair and then proceeded to Kossol Passage, in the Palau Islands. While operating here she suffered minor damage when a depth charge was accidentally set off by the impact caused when a small craft bumped into a subchaser that was moored alongside. No personnel casualties were suffered.

After the surrender of Japan, Argonne continued to operate in the western Pacific as a unit of the naval occupation force (September 17, 1945 to April 5, 1946). Returning to the United States, she was decommissioned on July 15, 1946.

Argonne received one battle star for her Pacific service.

Eastern Kansas Chapter #148

By J. Stanley Levitt

On Thursday, March 26th, Kansas Chapter 148 made a special occasion of their bi-monthly dinner meeting, by presenting a large bronze plaque of the Pearl Harbor logo and a dedication plaque to accompany it to Mr. Dan Holt, director of the Eisenhower Library in Abilene, Kansas. It will have a permanent home there in a conspicuous place among other World War II mementos.

The dedication below the logo reads:

DEDICATED TO THE MEMORY OF OUR FALLEN COMRADES
PEARL HARBOR SURVIVORS ASSOCIATION
KANSAS CHAPTER 148.

This gift was made possible by voluntary contributions of the 42 members of the chapter amounting to over $400. The plaque of the logo is 18" in diameter. The smaller plaque is 16" x 4". The display board on which the plaques are mounted was made by Survivor Reyman Cozad.

The presentation was made to Mr. Holt by Chapter President Dorwin Lamkin. In the photo are Trustee J. Stanley Levitt, Trustee William Tucker, Mr. Dan Holt of the Eisenhower Library, Secretary-Treasurer Charles Risher, President Dorwin Lamkin, and Past President and Trustee Fritz Kropf.

Chapter 148 now has the die for making the plaques. Any Chapter desiring to have one may call Dorwin Lamkin at (913) 362-0847 or Stan Levitt at (913) 339-6161.

Florida Chapter 2

By Margie McClintock
Ways and Means Chairman

A memorial "Salute To America" bar-b-que was held October 12, 1991 for Chapter 2 under the oak trees at Margie and Mac McClintocks.

The affair featured the patriotic motif and was visited by "Uncle Sam" from Rosie O'Grady's Church Street Station.

A patriotic song fest was played by Esther Sikkema and led by Mary Hicks, both of the Military Order of the Purple Heart.

Over 90 attendees and take-out dinners were served and the big keg of beer made the day perfect.

All proceeds of the affair were dedicated to the Memorial Fund for the Memorial Monument to be erected in Orlando, Florida dedicated to all Pearl Harbor Survivors.

A "gigantic" rummage sale was held on November 7, 1991.

The sale was very successful and resulted in proceeds of $1326.00 for the Memorial Monument Fund.

The construction and erection of the Monument, by Florida Chapter 2, to honor all Pearl Harbor Survivors, is scheduled for 1992.

Minnesota

By Glen C. Turner
State Chairman

1991 has been a big year for the Pearl Harbor Survivors of the State of Minnesota. The 50th Anniversary and events leading up to the December 7th remembrance observances has given all of us a great deal of exposure and has allowed us to tell our story and to prompt everyone to REMEMBER PEARL HARBOR, KEEP AMERICA ALERT.

As a result of all that exposure, we have increased our membership statewide. We welcome all new members and invite you to take part in all of our functions. You will be receiving notices prior to each event.

The Twin Cities Chapter published a book titled "We Remember."

It contains the stories of the attack on Pearl Harbor as written by 58 of the Chapter's members.

185 of these books have been sold to survivors and other interested parties. One book was put in the USS Arizona Memorial Library in Pearl Harbor.

A reprint of 25 books has just been completed and copies are available from Glen Turner.

During this last year, survivors participated in the following activities;

* November 10; A contingent of survivors marched in the MINNESOTA VETERANS APPRECIATION CELEBRATION PARADE,

* November 11; 116 Pearl Harbor Congressional Commemorative Medals were awarded to Survivors of the Dec. 7th attack, kin of servicemen killed in action on Dec. 7, 1941, and spouses and relatives of survivors that have died since the attack.

750 people attended the ceremony in which one half of the Minnesota Congressional delegation, consisting of Senator Durenberger and Congressmen Penny, Ramstad, Sikorski and Vento took turns presenting the medals to the recipients. Bernie Melter, the Commissioner of Veteran Affairs, presided and the program was enhanced by the music of the Chord-Ayers.

Senator Dureberger sent 147 medals to the approved recipients that were unable to attend the Award Ceremony. Since mid January, fifty-nine additional approvals have been received.

This makes a total of 322 medals awarded in the state. These last 59 and any additional awards will be received directly from The Dept. of the Navy.

* Dec. 5 A dance honoring the Veterans of Pearl Harbor was held at the Bel-Rae Ballroom in the Twin Cities.

* Dec. 7 A crowd of over 300 gathered at the Minneapolis V.A. Medical Center along with a large contingent of Pearl Harbor Survivors for a stirring Memorial Service that featured a talk by Gov. Arne Carlson and music by the St. Alphonse Choir. Al Quackenbush and his Committee are to be congratulated for arranging an outstanding program.

* Dec. 7 A ceremony sponsored by the VFW was held on the State Capital grounds at the Ward Gun. It was well attended by the First Shot Naval Veterans and Pearl Harbor Survivors.

We have had our big 50th, now lets look forward to celebrating the rest of the 50th anniversaries of WWII!

Florida Gold Coast Chapter 4

Five members of Chapter 4 attended Veteran's Day ceremonies held at City Hall in Coral Springs, Florida on November 11, 1991 were Cy Cybulski, Ed Carstens, Hazelet Villa, John Colligan and Ed Scharlach.

The Navy celebrated its 216th birthday on October 13, 1991. Broward County, Florida celebrated with its Navy Days on Oct 10-15 at Port Everglades.

Navy ships in port were:

USS John F. Kennedy CV67

USS West Virginia SSBN736

USS Miami SSN755

USS Jos Hewes FF1078

USS Jesse L. Brown FF1089

Public visits were held, however, the PHSA Members of FL Gold Coast Chapter 4 were invited for a private tour of the USS Kennedy at 6:30 pm on October 12th. About 44 members and wives came aboard. Due to the age and condition some didn't handle the ladders too well. We were taken from hanger deck to flight deck and back by aircraft elevator.

Below deck visits were not conducted on the USS West Virginia. Our secretary, Ed Carstens, was on USS West Virginia BB48 at Pearl on 12-7-41. Ed was given a conducted tour. One word... "awesome."

Help!

I am in need of your help! I have been trying since last June to get my Pearl Harbor Medal. I was in the Infantry on December 7, 1941. After that I was transferred to the Air Corp. My discharge shows I was in the Air Force in the states when I was discharge on June 7,1945. They can find no records of me ever being in Hawaii, even though my discharge shows I was in the Central Pacific from 1939 to 1944.

I need someone who was in Company "G" 27th Infantry, Schofield Barracks, Hawaii on December 7th, 1941 to verify that I was also in Hawaii on December 7, 1941.

National President

National Vice President Lee Goldfarb announces his candidacy for the office of National President of the Pearl Harbor Survivors Association . The election will be held at the National Convention in Little Rock, Arkansas in December 1992.

Lee has served as New Jersey State Chairman, 7th District Director as well as National Vice President. Lee served on the Capitol Liaison Committee having been appointed by the last four National Presidents including Tom Stockett, Dave Bedell, Ken Creese and Gerry Glaubitz. It was this committee that successfully secured our National Charter.

In addition we placed Memorial Plaques both at West Point and Annapolis and expect to present one at the Coast Guard Academy sometime this year. The Capitol Liaison Committee also worked successfully in obtaining the Congressional Commemorative Medal.

Lee enlisted in the Navy in 1940, and at the time of the attack on Pearl Harbor was stationed aboard the USS Oglala.

Lee and his wife Molly reside in East Hanover, New Jersey.

National Vice President

The announcement in the February Gram of my candidacy for the office of National Vice-President indicates my desire to serve the Association and its membership in that capacity. It is deserving, then, that some of my experience, qualification and beliefs be known in order for judgement to be made.

The experience gained in the service of the Organization since joining in 1971, and the knowledge of the detailed regulations, its limitations and functions, has given me the qualification to serve in that capacity.

During my five-year term as National Secretary, I endeavored to demonstrate my profound concern for the Membership by a quick, and complete response to their needs, while promoting a constant and effective effort toward a more efficient and economic operation.

The Pearl Harbor Survivors Association, Inc. was made up by our Founding Fathers in the beginning, for the men and women of the five military services on Oahu during the attack... Army, Air Corps, Coast Guard, Marines and the Navy.

We must not permit dominance by any one of these services by any method of inference, and expect our Organization to survive.

Our Founding Fathers created our Organization for the purpose of locating and bringing together the survivors from ALL these branches of military service in a healthy social atmosphere. We must strive to keep and to exercise the original concept.

We must never permit a climate that would invite those who would use self-satisfying political means, rather than qualification, to seek National Office.

I would appreciate your support in Little Rock, Arkansas in December 1992 at our National Convention.

For National Secretary

As most of you know that attended the 50th anniversary reunion in Hawaii, my right eye was really bothering me from a retina operation and I had my doubts if I would run again for national secretary.

Since that time, I have had another operation and the eye is healing beautifully. Although not completely healed, I 'm seeing better each day, so feel that I can complete and continue the job that I started in December of 1990.

Without Maryanne's help these past few months, I couldn't have done the job but we survived and with your support at the Little Rock Convention I will continue to serve you and the Association to my fullest capability.
